Interest Methodology

The Interest rate and yield for each of the loan product is decided by the internal Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) from time to time. The floating rate of interest is linked to Business Nextgen Finance Private Limited Prime Lending Rate (PLR) which is subject to change from time to time depending on Cost of Funds, Cost of Operations, Overall Credit and Default Risk, Liquidity/Risk Premium /Margin, Negative carry-on investment and Volatility Risk. Interest rate offered by the company may vary between customer to customer broadly on account of following factors:

- Employment / profession Type
- Internal Credit rating & Credit Bureau inputs and score
- Previous repayment history
- Type of Security offered
- Credit and default risk in the related business segment
- Historical performance of similar homogeneous clients
- Industry Trends

The interest rate may also be offered at fixed rates or with dual rate of interest where rate of interest would be fixed for a pre-defined tenure and for balance tenure same would be floating linked to Business Nextgen Finance Private Limited PLR.
